Oregon Alpha Receives Chapter Achievement Award at Leadership School

L-R: Chapter Advisor Will Later '12, Jack Imelio '21, Evan Kelchner '21, and Jack Powell '21, at the 83rd John O. Moseley Leadership School, held August 3-6, 2018, at the Sheraton Wild Horse Pass in Phoenix, Arizona.

This year, Oregon Alpha was recognized with the Chapter Achievement Award, which is earned by chapters that excel in the core fundamental areas of chapter operations.

Chapter Advisor's Report

As an undergraduate member of SAE, I was fortunate enough to attend two large scale events put on by the National Fraternity. The first was the 75th John O. Moseley Leadership School in Miami, and the second was the 2011 Convention in Memphis. My third event, the Alumni Advisor Training at the 83rd John O. Moseley Leadership School in Phoenix, was just as special as the previous two.

The program was facilitated by Jesus Maldonado, the Province Archon for Province Chi. The four other alumni in the group were Michael Demere, Tennessee Kappa; Bill Farr, Oklahoma Mu; Chase Johnson, Kentucky Epsilon; and John Antonio, Province Upsilon Archon.

The few days spent talking with these brothers about different issues that face our fraternity, and the Greek system as a whole, gave me some great perspective.

The most dynamic conversations we had centered around the changes in university landscapes, understanding why we are advisors, and some extra training on how to improve communications and conversations with the collegiate members of our chapters.

The most impactful session by far was the "Love, Mom and Dad" presentation. Three families, each of whom had lost a son due to hazing, shared their stories for about an hour and a half. Listening to the raw emotion and sadness behind their stories was, as one of the other advisors put it, "like someone just grabbed your heart and started to squeeze." None of the families' sons were SAEs, but they were willing to come to one of our largest events and share their stories.

After that presentation, we had our last breakout session with the other advisors. With a few tears around the table, we got to talking about how to prevent such incidents in the future. The ideas ranged from implementing changes in our national structure to holding the most honest conversations possible with our members, letting them know that any actions that fall outside of the fraternity's core values and principles will be dealt with immediately and with zero tolerance.

Our attendance at events like these provides extra inspiration to work with our members and alumni at Oregon State and beyond. One of my goals after attending this great event is to join the faculty of the Western States Leadership School in Las Vegas.

Eminent Archon Report

The Oregon Alpha Chapter of SAE has completed another monumental year, maintaining high scholastic standards and excelling in community service and leadership.

This year was also a time for adaptation to the changing culture around fraternities, as national headlines spotlighted issues associated with fraternities across the nation. Many colleges suspended Greek Life indefinitely at one point or another, due to hazing and drinking related deaths. The Sigma Alpha Epsilon Supreme Council wanted to get ahead of these issues before they reached our organization, and imposed the first "social moratorium" or "social pause," with all social activities suspended for three months. During this time, they asked undergraduate brothers for advice on how we can hold safe social events and ensure that everyone follows risk management policies. The Supreme Council consulted health and safety experts, and came up with a set of guidelines post-moratorium to further enhance our safe social practices: dry periods for the first week of school and the days leading up to and including finals week; limitation of beverages served at social events to 14% ABV or less; and promotion of each chapter's health and safety officer to the executive board. The social pause gave the brothers of Oregon Alpha a chance to take a step back and reflect on what it means to be fraternity men, and why we originally joined.

We started out the year with three goals: to win a philanthropy event hosted by another organization on campus, to increase our number of hours devoted to community service, and to be nominated for the John O. Moseley Fraternity Zeal Award, which is awarded to the best SAE chapter in the nation.

In the spring, we met our first goal by winning not one, but two philanthropies. In Kappa Kappa Gamma's annual "Kappa's in the Key 3 on 3" basketball tournament, two of our teams played each other in the final game, securing us an overall victory. Our own Tug-of-War philanthropy, now in its third year and including a new raffle, raised nearly $10,000 for Samaritan Health's Mario Pastega House. Ken Pastega was in attendance, and shared some kind words about how our fraternity has benefited families who have stayed at the house and helped fund improvements to the house.

We achieved our second goal as brothers stepped up to the challenge and completed more than 2,000 hours of community

SAE Mission Statement

The mission of Sigma Alpha Epsilon is to promote the highest standards of friendship, scholarship, and service for our members based upon the ideals set forth by our founders and as specifically enunciated in our creed, "The True Gentleman."

The True Gentleman

The True Gentleman is the man whose conduct proceeds from good will and an acute sense of propriety, and whose self-control is equal to all emergencies; who does not make the poor man conscious of his poverty, the obscure man of his obscurity, or any man of his inferiority or deformity; who is himself humbled if necessity compels him to humble another; who does not flatter wealth, cringe before power, or boast of his own possessions or achievements; who speaks with frankness but always with sincerity and sympathy; whose deed follows his word; who thinks of the rights and feelings of others, rather than his own; and who appears well in any company, a man with whom honor is sacred and virtue safe.

One of Oregon Alpha's great traditions is the annual Dining on Duck dinner the Monday night before the Civil War football game in November. This past November 20, a packed Oregon Alpha dining room enjoyed a special presentation by Brooke Knight '94. Brooke played football and baseball for the Beavers and shared his thoughts with the current members about the Civil War, life, and fraternity. Brooke is currently head coach of the Corvallis Knights baseball team. The Collegiate Wood Bat Summer League plays its games at Goss Stadium. The most successful head coach in West Coast League history, Brooke has skippered the Knights to five WCL championships in his 10-year tenure at the helm. He captured his first title as a rookie head coach in 2008, and added subsequent crowns in 2011, 2013, 2016 and 2017. Brooke shared many great stories of his time as a member of Oregon Alpha.

service. Some of our major events included a park cleanup at Chintimini Park and the Adopt-a-Highway program we participate in every term on Hwy. 99 south of town. A few individuals went above and beyond, including Braden Vogt '18, who volunteers as a youth mentor for kids at the College Hill High School, and Jakob Eisenbeiss '21, who is a volunteer firefighter in Corvallis.

After a successful visit with our Coordinator of Chapter Development, Travis Tafoya, we were nominated for both the Chapter Achievement Award and the Zeal Award. Travis was impressed with all we had accomplished in brotherhood, leadership, and campus involvement.

We continued to lead academically, earning an overall GPA of 3.08 in the fall, 3.04 in the winter, and 3.12 in the spring, topping the all-men's average GPAs for those terms. Winter term, our first-year members finished with a 3.15, the highest first-year members' GPA of all Greek organizations on campus.

This year has had its challenges, with another young executive team consisting of mostly undergrads, but as in years prior, they exceeded expectations and continued the tradition of developing True Gentlemen while promoting the highest standards. We anticipate another strong fall recruitment, and will continue to improve our organization and encourage our members to be the best they can be.

BOB FOSTER '61 wrote "To illustrate how SAE made many of us longtime friends, last weekend my wife and I flew from Los Angeles to Sun Valley, Idaho, to visit two of my pledge brothers, VERN RIFER and JON MASTERSON. All of us met in the fall as freshmen in 1957. All three of us graduated OSU in 1962, although we were in the class of 1961. We regularly keep in touch with ROB CHRISTENSEN, DICK ROY, PAUL BENNINGHOFF, and DAVE PAUL, all in the class of 1957."

VERN RIFER '61 sends "This spring I finally decided to retire from real estate development and teaching at Portland State. I taught 11 years in the PSU master's degree real estate program. Most of my real estate developments over thirty plus years were mixed-use and mixed-income urban projects in the Portland area. They typically involved condominiums, apartments, retail and office. Linda and I live in a condo we developed in Portland's Lair Hill neighborhood above the South Waterfront. We are taking advantage of our first free time for two trips to Europe this year. We also just had a very pleasant visit with BOB and Joyce FOSTER and JON and Margie MASTERSON at the Masterson's Sun Valley home.

RON EMMERSON '66 shared information about an alumni gathering that took place a year ago on August 6th at the Racquet Club in Beaverton. The following brothers enjoyed five hours catching up and reminiscing: BILL BEELER '66, ANDY CLEVELAND '65, STEVE CROW '69, JOE DEJAGER '65, WALT EBELL '69, RON EMMERSON '66, CRAIG FLETCHER '67, JIM FLYNN '68, JACK GALLAGHER '67, DON GALLAGHER '68, JOHN HERGENRATHER '67, RICH HERGENRATHER '71, BILL HOPPER '69, RON IWASAKI '67, GREG MACY '65, JERRY MASON '65, JOE MAYLIE '63, JIMMY POWELL '69, RAY SHAW '66, and TOM VANDERZANDEN '67.

He wrestled for legendary OSU Coach Dale Thomas, whose style and mentoring would have a profound effect on Steve. In 2012, he authored his book Sorta Tough about Coach Thomas and the OSU wrestling program. Steve won the PAC-8 Conference Wrestling Championship at 137 pounds in 1968. He was inducted into the Oregon Chapter of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame in 2013. Steve also served in the US Air Force during the Vietnam era. He and his wife Betty lived in Estacada for more than 40 years. [excerpt from Steve's obituary]

I was named the Outstanding Wrestler in that tournament. We had four OSU guys in the finals. That might be my favorite memory."

RICK WILLIAMS '74 sends "I have completed 14+ years at SAIC/Leidos and have transitioned to my own company, Oregon Applied Research, LLC, and doctoral studies in Energy Policy at Portland State University.
